

BRAINTEASER

Can you work out what this graph represents? It's showing the CO<sub>2</sub> levels recorded by a CO<sub>2</sub> probe left in a classroom for two lessons, pre-Covid. Each lesson was an hour in length and the classes were of comparable size. The first lesson involved practical work. Can you explain the changes during the second hour?

